

First Peoples of the Plains

Traditions Shaped by Land & Sky

Exhibit opening September 30, 2011
at Morrill Hall in Lincoln, Nebraska

Located on the UNL City Campus, south of 14th & Vine Streets.
University of Nebraska State Museum
museum.unl.edu

The First Peoples of the Great Plains lived upon and moved across the “land beneath the sky.” They transformed the natural products of this diverse region into tools, food, clothing, and shelter. In turn, their solutions to the challenges of life on these vast grasslands became cultural traditions that also shaped language, marriage, artistic expression, and religion. Discover these enduring traditions in this newly renovated exhibit gallery that celebrates Native American cultures of the past and present.

Generous support provided by the Hubbard Family Foundation.
Photo © Don Doll, S.J.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is an equal opportunity educator and employer.

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Lincoln